

MODALS

1// Choose the correct MODAL verb.

1. Why don't you share things with your brother? You be so selfish.
a. shouldn't b. can't c. don't have to
2. If the police ask you a question, you tell the truth.
a. can b. may c. must
3. That be Maureen! She looks completely different!
a. mustn't b. shouldn't c. can't
4. David has got a new girlfriend. He be very happy.
a. has to b. must c. could
5. I run for miles when I was younger.
a. could b. can c. might

2// MODALS. Choose two correct answers.

1. You need to / must / can stop thinking about William! You know he's not interested in you!
2. Why not come with me? It could / must / might be fun!
3. You must / ought to / should apologise to Jim. You were quite rude to him.
4. I don't have to / mustn't / can't stay out too late tonight. I have an exam at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.
5. It upsets me that Lisa and my parents can't / aren't able to / don't have to get along with each other.
6. Can / Should / May I go to the toilet, please?. Sure!

3// Complete the sentences using the correct MODAL or MODAL PERFECT below. Do not change the original meaning.

might • are able to • shouldn't have • must • don't need to

1. Have you got the ability to make friends easily?
..... make friends easily?
2. I made a mistake by inviting your old boyfriend.
..... invited your old boyfriend.
3. It is unnecessary for you to prepare dinner.
..... prepare dinner.
4. It's possible that Maya will get here late.
..... get here late.
5. You're required to provide an e-mail address.
..... provide an e-mail address.